Mr. Bernard, Mr. Loprete, and Mr. Downs,

These past years as we have walked through the high school, we thought that we were invincible. Like most teenagers we believe that nothing bad could ever happen to us—We were special. The fact that we have made it to graduation day will surely cause us to think even more highly of ourselves. However, we cannot forget those who have guided us throughout our education.

Teachers at North Reading are committed to seeing us excel in the classroom and in our sports and clubs. But the administrative staff are the unsung heroes of our educational careers, working tirelessly behind the scenes. Even with all of the changes these past few years, the administration has always been there to support us through the lows and commend us through the highs.

Mr. Bernard: first of all we would all like to congratulate you on becoming the Superintendent to the North Reading Public Schools. Having been our Principal for the last three years, you have invested your life throughout the bulk of our academics and activities. Your undeniable support has helped us all to grow tremendously not only in our education but also as people. No one is more deserving of the position of Superintendent than you and we all know you will do amazing things through the rest of your career.

Mr. Loprete and Mr. Downs: as we entered into this school year, it seemed that everything was changing. Mr. Loprete, thank you for becoming our Principal of NRHS. We know that you will help keep North Reading on its excellent path. We, as a class, are grateful that you have been there as an assistant and now principal of our school for us; we wish you luck on your future success at North Reading High School. Mr. Downs, we would like to welcome you to the North Reading Public School system and are sure that you will make your mark on NRHS in the most positive way. We already know how motivated you are to help the school as you pop your head into classes, sit in on and contribute to class discussions, and cheerfully greet us as we come in the lobby in the morning. We know that your future here at North Reading will be great, and we have no doubt that your experiences will help to improve our High School even more.

Saying “thank you” is not nearly enough for the work that you all have put into ensuring that we have made it to graduation. Although we will never truly know the extent to which you have helped us, we are grateful for that help—both the seen and unseen. We can leave NRHS and move onto amazing things, confident that our education has prepared us for whatever may come our way.

Thank You,
The Class of 2015

GOOD LUCK,

"asdfjkl; I wouldn't be the typer I am today without Ms. Diez"
-Mr. Pintzopoulos

Lil Diezemann saved my life in 2008 when she accurately diagnosed the excruciating pain in my gut as an acute case of appendicitis. She was able to tell just by my feeble shuffle down the old B-Wing hallway. She ordered me to seek medical help immediately and 6 hours later I had my appendix removed.

Thank you Doctor D. Medicine Woman !
-Mr. Putnam

MS DIEZEMANN!

Lil Diezemann is many things to me.....colleague, former teacher, mentor, sounding board, and friend. As one of my favorite teachers during my own high school experience, as well as a treasured colleague; Lil has taught me so much. I can only hope to leave half the influence on my students as she has on hers. "A teacher affects eternity. She can never tell where her influence stops."

-Ms. Pierce

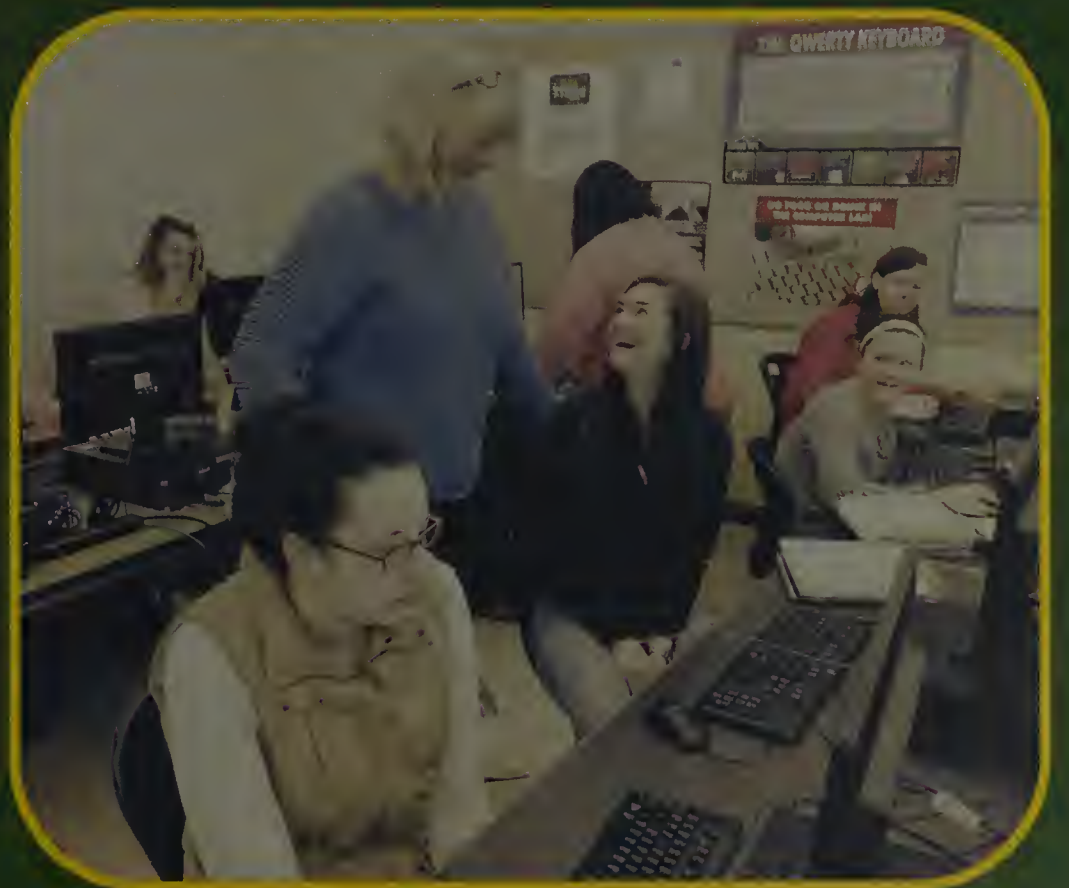

I'm so fortunate to have had Ms. Hurley as a teacher and as a colleague. Always armed with a quip or quote, "Just ducky," & "Whatever floats your boat," she brings a smile and humor to every situation:-) I will miss her friendship and leadership, NRHS won't be the same but we were lucky to have her!

-Mrs. Flaherty

Lil: I will miss your pleasant nature and I thank you for your dedication to your students. The countless number of students who come back to visit you after they have graduated from high school is the greatest testament to your positive influence on the lives of young people. I wish you a long and happy retirement filled with all of the things you enjoy with the people who mean the most to you.

Go on adventures, fall asleep in the woods with friends, wander around the city at night, sit in a coffee shop on your own, write on bathroom stalls, leave notes in library books, dress up for yourself, give to others, smile a lot. Do all things with love, but don't romanticize life like you can't survive without it. Live for yourself and be happy on your own. It isn't any less beautiful.

You'll have bad times, but it'll always wake you up to the good stuff you weren't paying attention to.

Being happy never goes out of style.

Enjoy the little things, for one day you will look back and realize they were the big things.

When We Were Young...

YOU KNOW YOU'RE FROM NORTH READING WHEN...

Everybody has a North Face backpack.

There is a herd of middle schoolers at Ryers after school.

Nobody uses their locker.

YOU HAVE TO WALK A MILE TO GET FROM THE PARKING LOT TO SCHOOL.

The students have nicer cars than the teachers.

You can't get any phone service at school.

You get lost on your first day of senior year.

EVERYONE STRONGLY
DISLIKES THE CHROME
BOOKS.

You miss Mary's cookies at lunch.

People already complain about the brand new school.

You get stuck in traffic every afternoon and morning.

The hand dryers are louder than the announcements.

YOU STILL MOURN OVER LOSING THE C-WING RAMP.

Jackie

Seems like only yesterday, that as a seven year old, you calmly informed us that you weren't planning to make the move from New York to Massachusetts.

From your very first days of pre-school to your last day of high school, you've made us proud every step of the way.

Stay true to yourself and share your sparkle wherever you go.

With Love,
Mom, Dad, and Gabby

Michael Celani

Dear Michael,
We are so proud of you!
You're a wonderful young man!!! Keep a positive outlook on life and may you always be blessed!

Adrianna Flanagan

Adrianna, We are very proud of your accomplishments during your 4 years at NRHS. You have excelled in Academics, Sports activities, and Community Services with a spirit of commitment, determination and fortitude to serve others. Your leadership is a gift and is based in willingness to put others first while having a vision to strive for nothing but excellence. We are most proud of the way you have achieved these High School milestones with a spirit of integrity, passion and always with an unselfish, compassionate mindset. God has given you many talents and a heart to serve. Always be mindful that He has a plan for you! We love you and are very thankful God gave you to us. We applaud you on your achievements! Love, Dad and Mom

Bryanne Riley

Corey Collins

It's hard to believe your school days here in North Reading have come to an end. Now its time for the next chapter in your life. I am sure you will handle this part with much strength and hard work.

We could not be more proud of the young man that you have become! Continue on the path you have chosen and I know you will have much success and happiness!

We love you so very much!!

Mom, Dad, Tyler and Olivia

Derek Hogan

Congratulations, Derek! You have brought so much fun, love and joy to our lives. We could not be more proud of you. We love you to the moon and back!
